Dear Valued Client,

During the last twelve years, I have had the wonderful privilege of providing professional accounting services to a wide variety of clients in this profession of public accounting. I have also greatly enjoyed working and residing in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley, which I have called home for almost my entire life. For these reasons, I had planned for a long career at Didawick & Knopp, P.C. However, as time has passed, my family has grown, circumstances have changed, and I now recognize the need for some priority changes in my life. Therefore, it is only after much serious consideration and internal struggle and with many mixed emotions that I am announcing my departure from the practice as of May 15 of this year. My family and I will be relocating to Florida to begin a new chapter in our lives.

My partner, David W. Didawick, joins me in assuring you that the quality of services you have come to depend on will continue to be provided by the firm. The transition is structured in a manner that will ensure that your particular needs are considered and met, both during the transition, and after. To aid in this transition process, I will continue to provide services to the firm after my departure in a consulting capacity for the benefit of our clients. It is our joint goal to make this change as seamless as possible. Meanwhile, I would welcome your calls with questions or concerns you may have.

As I am sure you are aware, I could not have properly serviced your tax and accounting needs without the dedicated and caring professional staff of individuals who have been, and will continue to be, actively and directly involved in providing your services. I have the utmost confidence that David and our excellent staff will be able to serve your professional needs in the months and years to come.

Again, it has been an honor and privilege to serve you during the last twelve years. I look forward to meeting with you or speaking with you in the upcoming weeks in order to complete another year of service and to personally express my best wishes for your continued prosperity in every way.

Very truly yours,

Joel A. Knopp, CPA
